Weddings

Bailey-Strickland.

Bailey-Strickland.

The marriage of Mrs. Mildred Smith Balley to Mr. Garland P. Strickland was quietly solemnized on Saturday evening at the parsonage of the Court Avenue Presbyterian church, the Rev. H. O. Hofstead officiating.

The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sturm, who entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. Strickland and his bride following the ceremony.

The bride, who is the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, of Dallas, Tex., formerly of Memphis, is a favorite in local musical circles. She has an unusually sweet soprano voice, clear and high, and is always entusiastically received when she appears upon a program.

Mr. and Mrs. Strickland will be at home to their friends at 1873 Madison avenue.

Geer-Fogge.

The marriage of Miss Julia Geer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Geer, to Mr. W. T. Fogge will be quietly solemnized on Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the Central Baptist church, the Rev. Dr. Fotts officiating. The bride will wear a suit of blue tricotine with hat and accessories in harmony and a corsage bouquet of Sweetheart roses and valley lilles. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fogge will leave for a Northern bridal frip and on their return will be at home at $57 Rayburn boulevard.

FARMER FOUND DEAD.

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 30.—Rev. Frederick Kopfman, pastor of the Methodist church at Titusville, N. J., who has been endeavoring to "drive the devil from the hearts of the immodest bathers at Washington's Crossing," was greeted yesterday with a shower of over-ripe tomatoes when he appeared at the resort to lecture them on the "immodesty" of their attire.

The pastor's automobile was wrecked and he was punched and mauled and an attempt was made to duck him in the Delaware river. He finally excaped while a constable held off the crowd with a revolver.

Interest the reastor was found nursing a bruise on his face. His clothing was covered with tomato seeds and juice, and his face streamed with perspiration. He was still full of fight, however, and determined, he said, to appear at the hearing before the township board next Tuesday to present his evidence on "immorality" among the summer colonists. FORT WORTH, Tex. Aug. P. The lifeless body of J. S. Odum, 55, was found hanging in a granary on his farm near Waxahachie this morning. A piere of baling wire had been used. County authorities expressed the belief Odum hanged himself.
